Jesus said: "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest for a while" Mark 6:30

Beersheba Springs Assembly, a United Methodist Retreat Center approximately 2 hours from Gallatin, is a place to experience spiritual refreshment and growth in a peaceful setting. We have blocked a group of rooms for our retreat in the Turner Lodge, which offers private rooms with private baths. Accommodations will be on a first-reserved, first-assigned basis. If you would prefer to attend the retreat on Saturday only, we have a Saturday Only Retreat Package as well. Details are shown below.

As a pastor to one of the largest churches in the United Methodist denomination, Rev. Rob Fuquay, says as he studies Jesus, he sees someone who shows grace to all people, and he wants to be a part of a church that models that understanding. Rev. Fuquay has degrees from Pfeiffer University and Candler School of Theology. He and his wife, Susan, have three daughters—Julie (son-in-law Christian), Sarah and Anna, and he is especially enjoying his newest identity as grandpa to their first grandchild.
